ASHEVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Asheville, N. C., November 18.—A very pretty bridge party was given Friday evening by Mrs. Clarence Sawyer at her home on South Main Street, which was attended by about fifty guests. The color scheme of the occasion was red, which was carried out in the decorations of the house, the salads and the ices. The scorecards were scarlet autumn leaves.

The first prize was won by Mrs. F. L. Hunt, while to Mrs. Martin L. Stevens the consolation was awarded. Allen Morrison was the host to a number of friends Thursday evening when he gave a stag dinner in honor of McLeod Patton, formerly of this city, but who for some time past has been a resident of Montana. The latter has returned to Asheville to live. About a dozen of the younger business men of the city were Mr. Morrison's guests.

J. A. Bueckell and W. C. Campbell entertained at the Manor Hotel Thursday evening at an informal bridge party, which was given in honor of Miss Katherine Langhorne of Virginia, who is a guest of Mrs. Frank R. Hewitt. The evening was most enjoyably spent by the guests of Mr. Bueckell and Mr. Campbell.

Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Waller were the guests of honor at a thoroughly enjoyable reception, which was given by the board of deacons of the First Baptist Church in the lecture rooms of the church Tuesday evening. Rev. Mr. Waller recently accepted the pastorate of the church, and has moved his family to Asheville. He was formerly pastor of the Deaderick Avenue Baptist Church, at Knoxville.

FARMVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Farmville, Va., November 18.—Mrs. R. Baxter Tuggle is visiting relatives and friends in Nottoway county.

Miss Mary Jackson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Roberts, of Arvonia.

Mrs. H. H. H. of Arvonia, Buckingham county, has been spending some time in the home of Henry Smith.

James A. Davidson has for her guests this week Misses Betty Owens and Jayne Davidson, of Richmond.

Miss Frankie McKinney has gone to Covington, Ky., on a visit to friends.

Mrs. S. D. Walton went on from Williamsburg, where she attended the Synodical Woman's Missionary Union, to Loudoun county to visit friends and relatives.

Miss Janet Duvall was hostess at a most attractive handkerchief shower given to Miss Lucy Dunnington on Thursday afternoon.

Rev. H. M. Fugate and Dr. Peter Winston are attending the sessions of the Virginia Baptist Association at Norfolk.

H. E. Barlow and Judge J. M. Crute are in Salisbury attending the Virginia Methodist Conference.

Dr. John Buchanan, former Virginia State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is visiting in the home of Dr. J. S. Jarnum, of the State Normal School.

Mrs. John Ware, who lived in Farmville when her husband was rector of the John's Memorial Church, has been a recent guest in the home of George Richardson.

BOWLING GREEN

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bowling Green, Va., November 18.—Miss Emma Lear, of Danville, is visiting Mrs. Robert A. Coghill.

Mrs. H. C. Hamer, of Petersburg, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Beasley.

Mrs. T. B. Givert left for Norfolk this week, where she will spend some time with her sister, Mrs. Maria Moore.

Everett Butler, of West Virginia, is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Butler.

Miss Caroline G. Broadbent spent a part of this week in Richmond with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Lloyd, of Richmond, spent several days this week with Mrs. Boyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Coghill.

Mrs. A. B. Chandler, Jr., of Fredericksburg, spent this week with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson, of King and Queen county, have moved here and are living at the Lawn Hotel.

Judge E. C. Moncreuf, Dr. William L. Broadbent and Rev. C. E. Crutcher, all attended the General Baptist Association in Norfolk this week.
